The following provisions

Mysore Rules.

Rule 18. Every prospecting license granted under these rules will be in Form No 4 appended hereto and will be valid for one year, but the Govt may at their discretion sanction the renewal of any license from year to year on payment in advance of the annual rent in accordance with the scale laid down in Rule 22 and on payment of any enhanced deposit as provided for in Rule 22. Ordinarily three such renewals will be sanctioned if there is reason to believe that serious work is being done and that a valuable mineral deposit has not been sufficiently located. Whenever a fourth renewal is desired special reasons must be given

"Provided that, when the licensee has, before the termination of the period of the license, applied for the grant of a mining lease, the Director, Dept of Geology, may further extend the period of the license until a mining lease is granted or for such time as he may deem fit."

Rule 21. The rent payable in respect of a license shall be not less than one anna and not more than one rupee per acre of the area granted. In the event of the renewal of a license, the rent payable will be one anna per acre over and above the rent paid for the current year, during which application for renewal ~~is made~~ or for a mining lease is made. Provided that the total rent shall not exceed one rupee per acre of the area.

Govt of India Rules.	Remark

Rule 30. Every prospecting license shall contain such conditions as may in any particular case seem necessary, and shall in all cases contain the following conditions. —

(i) The term for which the license shall be granted shall be one year or such shorter term as the applicant may desire. The license may be renewed by the collector for a further term not exceeding two years, whenever he is satisfied that a longer period than one year is required in order to enable the licensee to complete his search of the land,

Provided that, when the licensee has, before the termination of the period of the license, applied for the grant of a mining lease, the collector may further extend the period of the license until a mining lease is granted or for such time as he may deem fit.

(ii) The licensee shall pay a fee not exceeding one rupee and not less than one anna per acre of the land covered by the license. When a license is renewed under the last foregoing condition, a fresh fee shall be payable, subject to the same maximum and minimum charge, for each year or part of a year for which the license is renewed. But no fee shall be payable for an extension of the term of license under the proviso to that condition.
